DUBLIN.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, A Proclamation.

Whereas we have received certain Information from several Persons of undoubted Credit, That Sarsfield, commonly called Lord Lucan, and several Officers have lately landed and are gone into several Parts of this Kingdom, and have had their Meetings with several Popish Gentlemen, in order to excite a Rebellion in favour of the Pretender, and that an Insurrection is certainly designed in all Parts of the Kingdom in one Night, and for that purpose there are Emisaries in every County.

We therefore the Lord Lieutenant and Council have thought fit by this our Proclamation, to give all his Majesty's faithful Subjects this Notice thereof, that they may hold themselves upon their Guard and Defence against such treasonable and most horrid Practices and Designs.

And that the most strict and diligent Search and Enquiry may be made for the said Sarsfield, commonly called Lord Lucan, and for such other Persons as have come into this Kingdom for the Purposes aforesaid. We do hereby strictly charge, command, and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, and all other Magistrates and Officers, That they do strictly and diligently search for, seize and apprehend the said Sarsfield, commonly called Lord Lucan, and all other Person and Persons come into this Kingdom for the purposes aforesaid; and that all due Encouragement may be given for the seizing and apprehending of him and them, We do hereby publish and declare, that we will give the necessary Orders for the Payment of the Sum of One Thousand Pound Sterl. to any Person or Persons who shall discover, seize and secure the said

Sarsfield, commonly call'd Lord Lucan; as also, the Sum of One Hundred Pound Sterl. for the Discovery, Seizing, and Securing of each Officer who hath come into this Kingdom for the said purposes, so as such Discovery, Seizing, and Apprehending, be within 3 Kalendar Months, to be accounted from the Date of this our Proclamation.

And whereas we have just Reason to apprehend, that such treasonable Practices, and most wicked and unnatural Attempts have been carried on by Papists, and other Persons disaffected to his Majesty's Government, in Favour of the Pretender, incited thereunto by the Popish Clergy of this Kingdom.

We do therefore strictly charge and command all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Magistrates, and Officers, that they do strictly and diligently search for, apprehend and secure all Popish Archbishops, Bishops, Jesuits, Fryers, and all Popish Priests, and all others exercising any Popish Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, and them so apprehended, to commit to Goal, there to remain until they be thence delivered by due Course of Law.

And that the most effectual Means may be taken at this Juncture for securing the publick Peace and Preservation of all his Majesty's good Subjects, We do hereby strictly charge, require and command all Governours, Lieutenants, Deputy-Lieutenants, Commissioners of the Array, and Officers of the Militia in the several Counties of this Kingdom, to muster and array the Militia, and to have the same in all due Readiness, and carefully and diligently to watch and secure all the Out-lets, Passes, and Parts of their respective Counties, and to distribute themselves into several Districts and Bodies within the same, as may be most necessary and convenient for the Preservation and Security of the publick Peace.

And in pursuance of the Statute lately made in this Kingdom, entituled, An Act to restrain Papists from being High and Petty Constables, and for better regulating the Parish Watches. We do hereby strictly charge, command and require all Justices of the Peace within their respective Counties, to issue out their Warrants to the several High and Petty Constables, requiring and commanding them to settle and fix Protestants, and none other to be Watch men in and for their several and respective Parishes; and that they do diligently keep Watch within the same, according to the Tenor of the said Statute.

And whereas by a Statute made in the 2d Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen, Anne against the further Growth of Popery, it is enacted, That no Person or Persons that are or shall be Papists, or profess the Popish Religion, shall or may after the 24th Day of March, 1703, take or purchase an House or Tenement; or come to dwell or inhabit within the City of Limerick, or Suburbs thereof, or within the Town of Gallway, or Suburbs thereof; and that every Person of the Popish Religion now inhabiting within the said City or Suburbs of Limerick, or within the Town or Suburbs of Gallway, shall before the 24th Day of March next ensuing, before the chief Magistrate of the said respective City or Town, become bound to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, with two sufficient Sureties, in a reasonable penal Sum to be ascertained by the chief Magistrate, Recorder, and Sheriff of the said City and Town respectively, or any two of them, with Condition for his or her faithfully bearing themselves towards her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or in Default of giving such Security, such Person shall depart out of the said City, Suburbs and Town aforesaid, on or before the 25th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord God, 1705.

We therefore the Lord Lieutenant and Council, do hereby strictly charge and require the several and respective Magistrates of the said City of Limerick and Town of Gallway, to put the said Law in due Execution against all Papists inhabiting within the said City of Limerick, or the Suburbs thereof, or within the said Town of Gallway, or Suburbs thereof, contrary to the said recited Act.

And we do hereby farther strictly charge and command all Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, and other Officers, to suppress all numerous and tumultuous Assemblies and Meetings of Papists and disaffected Persons, upon any Pretence whatsoever.

And we do farther strictly charge and command all Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, and other Officers, That they make diligent Search and Enquiry after all Strangers, Travellers and Passengers, and others, whom they shall suspect to be disaffected to his Majesty's Person and Government, and for all Persons who lately have or shall come into this Kingdom, or are going out of the same; and in case they have just Cause upon due Examination, to suspect such Person or Persons to be disaffected to his Majesty's Person and Government, that they bind over such Person or Persons with sufficient Sureties for his and their peaceable and good Behaviour, or otherwise to commit him or them to the next County Goal, until he or they be thence delivered by due Course of Law.

And we do hereby strictly charge and command all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs and other Magistrates and Officers, that they pay all due Obedience to this our Proclamation; and that they do diligently put in Execution all Laws and Statutes whatsoever now in Force in this Kingdom against all Papists and reputed Papists, and all Persons suspected to be disaffected to his Majesty's Government. And we do likewise strictly charge and command all other Officers Civil and Military, and all other his Majesty's loving Subjects, that they do to the utmost of their Power assist the said Justices of the Peace, Magistrates and Officers, in the Execution thereof; and that they and every of them do with the utmost Diligence attend, and take Care of the publick Peace and Quiet of the Kingdom, as they regard their Duty and Affection to his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Security and Preservation of this his Kingdom.

LONDON.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, High Sheriff, and Grand Jury for the County of Northumberland, at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said County at Morpeth the 8th Day of April 1719, has been presented to his Majesty by Francis Blake Delaval, Esq; Knight of the Shire for the said County, introduced by the Right Honourable James Craggs, Esq; one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects do with Indignation abhor and detest the intended Invasion from Spain in favour of the Pretender, to your Majesty's Crown: And upon this Occasion humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm and unchangeable Loyalty; and that we will with our Lives and Fortunes readily devote all that is dear to us, in Defence of your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and your Right and Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms against the Pretender, and all other his Adherents. We acknowledge the great and many Advantages we enjoy under your most auspicious Reign, and that the same may be long and prosperous over us, we most heartily pray; and that your Arms may be Victorious to the Shame and Confusion of all your Enemies both at home and abroad.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury of the County Palatine of Durham, at their General Quarter Sessions for the Peace the 8th of April 1719, has been presented to his Majesty by John Hedworth, Esq; Knight of the Shire for the said County; introduced by the Right Honourable James Craggs, Esq; one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Great Sir,

YOUR Majesty having graciously condescended to acquaint your People with the intended Invasion, we beg Leave to express our just Abhorrence of such an Undertaking. And as we reflect upon with Diffidence, we cannot pass by this early Opportunity of declaring to your Majesty and to the World, That we will in the greatest Sincerity of Duty and Affection, and at the expence of our Lives and Fortunes, contribute our best Endeavours to the Support of your just and lawful Title to and Possession of the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and to the continuance of our present Establishment, against the Pretender and all his Adherents.

Humbly imploring the Almighty will ever protect your Royal Person, and continue his Blessing upon your Majesty's most remarkable Care for our Preservation, and for all we esteem sacred and valuable.

Venice, April 1.

THE Tartans that arrived here some Days ago from Dulcigno, are returned thither laden with divers sorts of Merchandise; and a large Saïque from Metelino, which brought a rich Cargo from the Levant, is likewise sailed back; so that the Commerce between this City and the Places under the Turkish Dominion begins to be well re-established. The two Men of War with which Sig. Ruzini is to sail for Constantinople, are ready to put to Sea, and it is believed he is to set out on his Embassy thither the Beginning of next Month at farthest. A few small Vessels are arrived here from the Levant, by which we learn that the Ambassador of the Porte, who is to go to Vienna, prepares himself for his Journey, expecting only Advice that Count Virmond who is to go Ambassador of the Emperour to the Ottoman Court, is set out from Vienna. The Venetian Nobles and Officers that were Prisoners at Constantinople, have been set at Liberty, with Permission to return home when ever they think fit. Advices from the Frontiers of Bosnia say, that the Turkish Forces in those Parts have been in Motion to change their Quarters; that they are gathering Stores of all sorts of Provisions to fill the Magazines that were emptied in the late War, and are repairing the Fortifications of the Places of Strength in those Parts. It appears also by Letters brought by divers Merchants, that the Turks are sending Troops to Napoli di Romania, and other Places of the Morea, and are augmenting their Navy with 10 or 12 Sultanas, without its being known what may be the Design of these Preparations.

PARIS, April 8. On the 3rd Instant, being the Eve of Holy Thursday, the Empress Mother with the Archduchesses her Daughters, went on a Pilgrimage to a Village named Hernals at half a League Distance from this City, to visit the Holy Sepulchre built there in Imitation of that of Jerusalem. It happened that Evening, when the Procession came back from thence, that a young Gentleman of 21 Years of Age and of a good Family, who was one of them that dragged heavy Wooden Coffers, which they repute a meritorious Act of Penitence, was so fatigued when he came to the City Gate, that he dropped down dead; his Corpse is to be carried to Night to a Convent in order to be buried, whether none but such Cross-bearers are to attend it. On the said Thursday the Emperour received the Sacrament from the Hands of Sig. Spinola the Pope's Nuncio, and having assisted at the Sermon, the Mass, the Procession, and Vespers, he returned to his Palace, where he washed the Feet of 22 poor Men, served them at Table, and gave them Alms and new Cloaths. The Empress, the Empress Mother, and the Empress Dowager did the same to poor Women: In the Evening the Emperour assisted at an Italian Sermon, but their Imperial Majesties did not visit the Sepulchre, as usual, by reason of the bad Weather. Yesterday being Good Friday, the same was celebrated with great Devotion, but the Empress being still somewhat indisposed, her Majesty had Divine Service performed in private.

SCHAFHAUSEN, April 12. The Conferences for renewing the Capitulation or Treaty between the State of Milan and the Grisons, continue at Choice. The Articles relating to the Pensions and Arrears, and other Matters of less Importance, have been regulated to the Satisfaction of the three Leagues of that Republick, but they have not yet settled the principal Points, which are the demanded Demolishing of the Fort of Fuentes on the Frontiers of the Territories of the Republick, and the permitting to their Representatives the free Exercise of their Religion in their own Houses in the Valtelin and the County of Chiavenna, the first of which Points meets with great Difficulties. The Marquis d'Avarey, Ambassador of France, is suddenly gone from Soleure to Paris by Order from his Court. At Berne it is believed that the Alliance between the Crown of France and the Protestant Cantons will soon be renewed.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated April 21.

PARIS, April 14. Private Letters from Chambery in Savoy, mention, that Father de la Tour-nelle a Jesuit and Professor of Divinity in the College there, having dictated to the Scholars under his Care Exercises maintaining the Infallibility of the Pope, the Constitution's being a Rule of Faith, and its universal Acceptation, Complaints were made against him; but he declaring he designed to be the Martyr of the Constitution, the King of Sardinia upon Information, ordered his Senate or Parliament there to issue an Arrêt, prohibiting the Jesuits to make any Mention, either directly or indirectly, of the Constitution, on Penalty of being fined 10000 Livres, and having their Temporalities sequestered; with the like Prohibition to the Scholars, on Penalty of 50 Livres, to be paid by their Parents, ordering them to bring their Exercises to the Registers of the Criminal Court; which was put in Execution accordingly. On the 29th past, when M. Gaud the first President notified to the Jesuits that Arrêt, he at the same Time ordered Father la Tournelle in the King's Name to depart his Majesty's Dominions the next Day by Day break, and accordingly he was that Day conducted to the Frontiers by a Guard. The same Day the said first President attended by his Officers went to the College, to prohibit the Jesuits for the future to teach Divinity: He entered the Room where they held their Lectures, ordered the Scholars to deliver their Papers and to go out; after which he shut the Door, and took the Key with him. Upon this he went to the Jacobins, to whom he delivered the King's Letter, exhorting that religious Society charitably to receive the Scholars of the Jesuits, and granting to their College his Royal Protection.

The Earl of Berkeley is returned to Town, having left the Command of the Fleet to Sir John Norris. Letters from the Fleet advise, that two Men having on the 9th Instant been taken by one of our Cruisers out of the Sedgewick Frigate bound for London, which left Cadiz on the 11th of last Month, reported, that when the Spanish Fleet was in Cadiz, they were frequently on board two of the Transports (being English Ships) one of which had in her 500 Men and 70 Horses, and the other 300 Men and 40 Horses; and that by their Acquaintance among the Companies of those two Ships, they learnt, that when the said Fleet sailed from Cadiz, (which was several Days before the Sedgewick left that Place) they had but 3 Weeks Provisions on board. These Men say likewise, that they (in the Sedgewick) had not Twenty four Hours fair Wind in their Passage from Cadiz.
